UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

TRUE HEALTH CHIROPRACTIC,
Plaintiff(s),
v.
MCKESSON CORPORATION,
Defendant(s).

No. C-13-02219-JST (DMR)

NOTICE OF REFERENCE; ORDER
RE DISCOVERY PROCEDURES; AND ORDER DENYING JOINT DISCOVERY
LETTER [DOCKET NO. 46] WITHOUT PREJUDICE

TO ALL PARTIES AND COUNSEL OF RECORD:

The above matter has been referred to Magistrate Judge Donna M. Ryu for resolution of all discovery matters, including a pending joint discovery letter. [Docket No. 46.]

The court DENIES the discovery letter without prejudice. Any joint letter regarding the instant discovery dispute must be filed by March 21, 2014, and shall comply with the procedures in this order, the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and the Northern District of California's Local Rules, General Orders, and Standing Orders. In addition, the parties are instructed to attach as exhibits to their joint letter the discovery requests, objections, and responses at issue. Local rules, general orders, standing orders, and instructions for using the Court's Electronic Case Filing system are available at <http://www.cand.uscourts.gov>. Failure to comply with any of the rules or orders may be a ground for sanctions.

RESOLUTION OF DISCOVERY DISPUTES

In order to respond to discovery disputes in a flexible, cost-effective and efficient manner, the court uses the following procedure. The parties shall not file formal discovery motions. Instead, as required by the federal and local rules, the parties shall first meet and confer to try to resolve their disagreements. The meet and confer session must be in person or by telephone, and may not be conducted by letter, e-mail, or fax. If disagreements remain, the parties shall file a joint letter no later than five business days after the meet and confer session, unless otherwise directed by the court. Lead trial counsel for both parties must sign the letter, which shall include an attestation that the parties met and conferred in person or by telephone regarding all issues prior to filing the letter. Going issue-by-issue, the joint letter shall describe each unresolved issue, summarize each party's position with appropriate legal authority; and provide each party's final proposed compromise before moving to the next issue. The joint letter shall not exceed ten pages without leave of court. Parties are expected to plan for and cooperate in preparing the joint letter so that each side has adequate time to address the arguments. In the rare instance that a joint letter is not possible, each side may submit a letter not to exceed four pages, which shall include an explanation of why a joint letter was not possible. The parties shall submit one exhibit to the letter that only sets forth each disputed discovery request in full, followed immediately by the objections and/or responses thereto. No other information shall be included in any such exhibit. No other exhibits shall be submitted without prior approval by the court. The court will review the submission(s) and determine whether formal briefing or proceedings are necessary. Discovery letter briefs must be e-filed under the Civil Events category of Motions and Related Filings > Motions - General > "Discovery Letter Brief".

In the event that a discovery hearing is ordered, the court has found that it is often efficient and beneficial for counsel to appear in person. This provides the opportunity, where appropriate, to engage counsel in resolving aspects of the discovery dispute while remaining available to rule on any disputes that counsel are not able to resolve. For this reason, the court expects counsel to appear in person. Permission for a party to attend by telephone may be granted, in the court's discretion, upon written request made at least one week in advance of the hearing if the court determines that

1 good cause exists to excuse personal attendance, and that personal attendance is not needed in order
2 to have an effective discovery hearing. The facts establishing good cause must be set forth in the 3 request.

4 In emergencies during discovery events (such as depositions), any party may, after 5 exhausting good faith attempts to resolve disputed issues, seek judicial intervention pursuant to Civil
6 L.R. 37-1(b) by contacting the court through the courtroom deputy. If the court is unavailable, the 7 discovery event shall proceed with objections noted for the record.

8 CHAMBERS COPIES AND PROPOSED ORDERS

9 Pursuant to Civil L.R. 5-1(e)(7) and 5-2(b), parties must lodge an extra paper copy of certain 10 filings and mark it as a copy for "Chambers." Please three-hole punch the chambers copy and 11 submit it to the Oakland Clerk's Office.

12 Any stipulation or proposed order submitted by an e-filing party shall be submitted by email
13 to dmrpo@cand.uscourts.gov as a word processing attachment on the same day the document is e-
14 filed. This address should only be used for this stated purpose unless otherwise directed by the 15 court.

16 PRIVILEGE LOGS

17 If a party withholds information that is responsive to a discovery request by claiming that it
18 is privileged or otherwise protected from discovery, that party shall promptly prepare and provide a
19 privilege log that is sufficiently detailed and informative for the opposing party to assess whether a
20 document's designation as privileged is justified. See Fed.R.Civ.P. 26(b)(5). The privilege log shall 21 set forth the privilege relied upon and specify separately for each document or for each category of 22 similarly situated documents:

23 (a) the title and description of the document, including number of pages or
24 Bates-number range;
25 (b) the subject matter addressed in the document;
26 (c) the identity and position of its author(s);
27 (d) the identity and position of all addressees and recipients;

- (e) the date the document was prepared and, if different, the date(s) on which it was sent to or shared with persons other than its author(s); and
- (f) the specific basis for the claim that the document is privileged or protected.

4           Communications involving trial counsel that post-date the filing of the complaint need not be
5 placed on a privilege log. Failure to furnish this information promptly may be deemed a waiver of 6 the privilege or protection.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
